

PROCLAMATION DECLARING MAY 13, 2011 AS STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY IN HAYS COUNTY

STATE OF TEXAS §
COUNTY OF HAYS §

Whereas, San Marcos High School students represent the future leaders of our community who will be the decision-makers of the 21st Century in our school district, city, county, state and nation; and

Whereas, the students of San Marcos High School are engaged in the study of local government and have conducted an election to choose individuals to perform the roles of elected and appointed public officials; and

Whereas, these outstanding students will gain first-hand experience in the workings of County, City and School District government during Student Government Day on May 13, 2011, when they "shadow" their professional counterparts to experience the responsibilities of public service, hold a mock Commissioners Court meeting and attend a special luncheon; and

Whereas, Student Government Day will give public officials the opportunity to serve as mentors who can inspire and encourage these students to become active, contributing citizens in all levels of government for the rest of their lives; and

Whereas, the Student Government Day leaders from San Marcos High School participate in this important event to reflect their hope and sense of responsibility as they offer their talents and leadership in the future;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Hays County Commissioners' Court does hereby proclaim the 13TH day of May, 2011 as:

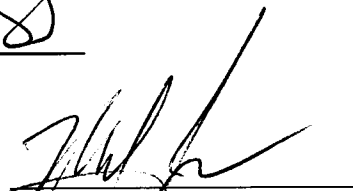

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY IN HAYS COUNTY

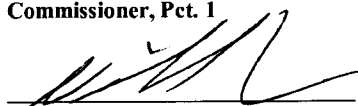

And Do Hereby call upon the citizens of Hays County to lend their support and encouragement to these future leaders of San Marcos.
