SUMMARY: See attached

WHEREAS, in the County of Hays the San Marcos-Hays Health Unit began in 1961, with 3 employees;

WHEREAS, today the people of the County of Hays benefit each day from the efforts of our public health workforce when eating at restaurants, drinking tap water, learning about prevention of deadly diseases or receiving vaccinations; and

WHEREAS, the efforts of public health workers to protect the public are of even greater significance in light of the threat of terrorism; and

WHEREAS, the public health workers' experience managing natural disease outbreaks combined with effective planning and partnership between federal, state and local authorities is beneficial for any future crisis; and

WHEREAS, public health efforts alone cannot accomplish the goal of a healthier County of Hays without cooperation and partnership with communities and individuals; and

WHEREAS, the theme of National Public Health Week 2009 is "Building the Foundation for a Healthy America;" and

WHEREAS, there can be no successful health reform without the support of a strong public health infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, by supporting our nation's public health system, we can build on the successes of the past and establish the solid foundation needed for a healthy nation; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Judge , do hereby proclaim April 6 through April 12, 2009, as Public Health Week in the County of Hays.
