SUMMARY

Commissioner Conley and the Auditor's office submitted an application to the Texas Comptroller's office seeking the recognition of Texas' highest transparency award - The Texas Comptroller Gold Leadership Circle Financial Transparency Award. This award recognizes local governments for striving to meet high standards of financial transparency online through the following methods: Opening their books to the public; providing clear and concise pictures of spending and sharing information in a user-friendly format that lets taxpayers easily drill down for more information. Hays County has organized financial information on the website in a manner that is easy to locate and review, so citizen's can keep tabs on every dollar spent.

Please join the Hays County Commissioners Court as we present the Texas Comptroller Gold Leadership Circle Financial Transparency Award to all Hays County Officials.

Texas Comptroller Gold Leadership Circle

awarded to

Hays County

For setting the bar for financial transparency and opening your books to the public.

The Texas Comptroller's Leadership Circle program recognizes local governments across Texas that are striving to meet a high financial transparency online. By providing citizens with a clear, consistent picture of spending and sharing information in a user-friendly format, you are setting a strong example for other governmental entities to follow.
